

MUCH DIRT MOVED

Goose Pond's Sides Hackled Again by Plows and Scrapers.

FARMERS BROUGHT TEAMS

Two Days Replete With Hard Work in Improving the Play Ground.

The annual two days' drive on Goose Pond began last Wednesday morning promptly at eight o'clock and continued until Thursday evening at five o'clock. The work was really inaugurated at seven o'clock Wednesday morning when the Big Chief John Chamberlain arrived to supervise the building of fires for the "barbecuing" of great hunks of beef which were served at the noon hour.

About one hundred and fifty men with forty teams responded to the call to arms, and worked diligently throughout the two days in filling the hollows and drubbing the humps that Goose Pond might some day be suitable for a sure-enough playground. An enormous amount of dirt was moved from one place to another that changed the looks of things mightily.

The boosters for the enterprise are indeed grateful to everyone who helped a lick, and especially the farmers, who, not only gave their services but furnished teams. In fact, the teams were the whole show, and without them the surface of Old Goose Pond would not have been scratched. Too much praise cannot be given the farmers for their assistance. Teams were furnished by the following:

Joe Schaaf, Geo. Hulver, Jim O'Donnel, Oscar Smith, John Logan, Frank Fisher, Ed Hulver, Henry Kroeck, M. C. McFadin, Jack Hicklin, W. A. Eastabrook, W. H. Waddell, Jr., R. S. Smith, Palmer Sill, Henry Wigbels, L. J. Slusher, Jno. Slusher, W. H. Willard, Henry Offel, Jeff Wilson, J. M. Hackler, Bob Barnett, W. C. Barnett, Alois Arth, Obe Stark, Ed Bertz, Chas. F. Meyer, Wm. Hackley, M. A. Chambers, Leonard Coen, Otto and Rueben Kroeck, Jas. Williams, Jr., Jas. Rice, James Aull, August Liehrman, Carl Bertz, Geo. Logan, Harry Calloway, Geo. Stuart, M. F. Davis, Sam Barnett, Homer Hulver, Selly Vaughan.

THE GOLDEN SHEAVES

Now are the days of prosperity come. The days when the farmer toiled not in vain. Good crops, good business and good times assure to every worker—whether on the farm or in other lines of business—a long period of successful endeavor. Building and repairs that you have been putting off until "better times" should be attended NOW. And remember, you will be consulting your own best interests when you come here for Lumber, a chance for him to kick when he gets the material home. —when you want the utmost value for your money, always buy at—

CENTRAL COLLEGE

RECITAL

The Second of Faculty Series Monday Night Was Enjoyed by a Large Audience.

Miss Jo Hinesley gave the program a thoroughly dignified opening with the Third Ballade of Chopin. Of the four compositions in this form, illustrative of great poems, the one in A flat is the prime favorite of pianists. And in her presentation Miss Hinesley displayed admirable qualities of technic and musicianship.

The work of Miss Lucille Reagan, the popular vocalist of the evening was most gratifying to her friends and those who admire sincerity in vocal art. Her annual recital appearances have been marked by consistent tonal and technical improvement, but musical appreciation is now due Miss Reagan for general musical excellence. Her beautifully equalized scale, very adequate breath control and repose of style made the rendition of her most difficult number an apparently easy task.

The English group comprised two songs from "Love Lyrics" by Amy Woodforde Finden, especially well suited to the plaintive quality so insistent in Miss Reagan's voice; while the sheer melody and rhythmic cadences of the Cadman songs so enthused the audience that an encore was demanded and Miss Reagan sang Galloway's "Gypsy Trail."

Miss Emory Todhunter made a valuable contribution to the program in a double number. The Souvenir by Drdla abounding in double stops was executed with technical command and poetical feeling. While the Liebesfreud was given with a verve and dash that found response in spontaneous and prolonged applause.

The accompaniments for the violin numbers were helpfully and artistically supplied by Miss Katherine Todhunter.

Miss Mary Malone the latest addition to the Piano faculty was felicitous in the brilliant Wagner-Liszt March from Tannhäuser. She played the showy mumber with rhythmical sweep, flourishing tone, and evident mastery of the instrument.

Following was the program:

Ballade, A flat - Chopin
JO HINESLEY
Se Seran Rose - Arditi
LUCILLE REAGAN
Violin Soli:
Souvenir - Drdla
Liebesfreud - Kreisl
EMORY TODHUNTER
Four Songs:
Till I Wake - Woodforde-Finden
Less Than the Dust - Woodforde-Finden
I Hear a Thrush at Eve - Cadman
For You - Cadman
LUCILLE REAGAN
Marche de Tannhäuser - Wagner-Liszt

RICHMOND H. S. 7;

W. M. A. SECOND TEAM 0

In a Spirited Contest the Second Best Took the Count.

In a most bitterly contested game here Friday, the Richmond High School football team defeated Capt. Latham's second best by one touchdown and a goal. A good brand of football was displayed by both teams, although both sides were weak at breaking up forward passes.

Throughout the first three quarters the ball see-sawed back and forth, neither side coming dangerously near scoring. Wentworth, however, kept the ball in the visitor's territory most of the time.

Almost the middle of the fourth quarter, Richmond worked a long forward pass which was unguarded even by the Second Team's safety man, and the Richmondites carried the ball to Wentworth's ten yard line where he was overtaken by Mose Amos. Two line plunges put the ball across the goal for the only touchdown of the game.

Do men here at home know style or don't they? We believe they do—that's why we feature the Stetson Hats.

As all good dressers know, there is an invisible line that separates real style from the make-believe.

One of the leading Stetson features, and bound to be specially popular this season, is the Pearl Gray Soft Hat with Black band—rather formal, vastly smart—sure to interest you, even if you afterward decide on some model less dressy in tone.
